Biography - Dr Arifa Parker

Dr Arifa Parker is an infectious diseases specialist and Head of the Unit for Infection Prevention and Control at Stellenbosch University and Tygerberg Hospital. She is the current president of the Infectious Diseases Society of Southern Africa (IDSSA) and serves on the Infection Control Africa Network (ICAN) board. Her interests are infection prevention, antimicrobial stewardship, and the relationship between infections and non-communicable diseases.